

Venue Spotlight:

Borealis

Local is at the very core of everything at Borealis. The environmental impact is significantly lower because the food you're eating is locally sourced.

Click here for more details

Avoid single-use items, and be sure to bring running shoes and a travel water bottle

Destination Canada offsets emissions from client & staff flights and encourages no/minimal layovers

CANADA

INNOVATE CANADA

Stay up-to-date with event updates through app communications and digital signage, minimizing single-use printing

Enjoy holistic, nutrient-dense meals from restaurants with sustainable practices like sourcing local ingredients

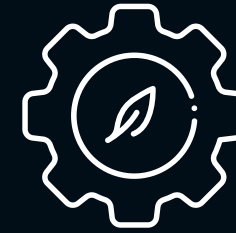

Receive a recycled metal name badge and reusable gifts for the program & beyond at the registration marketplace

Selected venues and restaurants are implementing initiatives like minimizing carbon emissions, limiting plastic and paper use

Food and beverage waste is minimized throughout the program

A tree will be planted on behalf of each client taking sustainable transfers

Hybrid Vehicles
Transfer from Airport

Walk distances up to 20-minutes

Wellness Breaks
Energize your day with a group walk or run

YOUR SUSTAINABLE EVENT JOURNEY

Venue Spotlight:

Ken Seiling Waterloo Region Museum

LEED certified
A globally recognized symbol of sustainability achievement and leadership

Click here for more details